

GOD WANTS YOU AND SO DO WE!

Billy Graham wrote... "We need less talk and more pity, less creed and more compassion, less programs and more prayers. If we don't feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, entertain the stranger, visit the imprisoned, and clothe the naked, who will?"

STREET MINISTRY AT 320 PRINCESS ST.

Chapel services are held Monday to Friday at 11:30 am, and each evening at 7:30 pm. Volunteers, pastors and UGM missionaries proclaim the Good News of salvation through faith in Jesus. Chaplains and volunteers are available to assist those that are asking for help. After each chapel time a meal is provided by volunteers and UGM missionaries, who cook and serve the meal to UGM's guests from the street. UGM receives meat, vegetables, and other food items from donors.

In the clothing room, volunteers diligently sort mountains of donated clothing, which is then freely distributed to homeless and needy people.

Our drop-in center is open 3 days a week in the afternoon. Here the guests from the street are offered a warm environment, hot showers, clothing, beverages, pastry and fruit snacks, and a safe place where everyone is accepted and loved. Volunteers and UGM missionaries interact with the patrons, and share the love of Christ with them.

UNION GOSPEL MISSION NEEDS YOUR PRAYERS, YOUR VOLUNTEER TIME AND YOUR DONATIONS.

UGM IS ON A MISSION ... A GOSPEL RESCUE MISSION

WOMEN'S ADDICTIONS A resident program for women seeking help in overcoming addictions was opened in the fall of 2009, at 271 Archibald Street. The facility can accommodate up to 60 women and their children. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is central to this work, as Bible studies, chapel times, small group sessions, and one on one Christian mentoring are offered by volunteers and UGM missionaries. Prayer and financial sponsorship of individual rooms by church groups and Christian individuals has been augmented by groups of volunteers assisting in the programming and maintenance of this building.

FAMILY MINISTRY At the Family Life Centre, located at 240 Pritchard Avenue, there are chapel services and Bible studies. UGM missionaries and volunteers at the FLC pray with the ladies who are seeking God. Home visits in the community reach out with Christ's love and the Gospel. Ladies' Day, on Wednesday, offers a chapel time, a guest speaker, a hearty meal, and clothing for both women and their children. Small group Bible study and prayer, led by volunteers and UGM missionaries assist the ladies in dealing with challenges of life in their neighbourhood.

CHRISTIAN SCHOOL Through a relationship with Faith Academy, parents and guardians of children in Winnipeg's north-end are offered a Christian education for their child through UGM. Individuals and church groups sponsor a child for whom they pray and contribute to tuition fees. Hope for a future in Heaven with Jesus is supplemented by the opening of doors into meaningful future employment, and positive Christian living here and now for the sponsored children.

MEN'S ADDICTIONS Our building at 320 Princess Street has 26 rooms available to men seeking help and release from addiction to drugs, alcohol and other disabling habits. Through Bible study, prayer and Christian mentoring, which is partly facilitated by volunteers, men have come to know Jesus and become functioning members of local churches. Work assignments are part of the in-house program, encouraging men to retain or develop employment thinking. Men in the program are encouraged to participate in Overcomer's meetings, which are also offered as part of the street ministry of UGM.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH MINISTRY

From the Family Life Centre, at 240 Pritchard Ave., volunteers and UGM missionaries present Jesus to children through "After School Clubs". With the help of a local Christian businessman, over 1000 underprivileged children are sponsored to Christian Camps, and are offered the opportunity to learn and believe in Jesus. A summer Bible club engages neighbourhood children in learning more about Jesus.

ADULT EDUCATION At Faith Learning Centre, located at 220 Prichard Avenue, adult students from the community are taught by dedicated Christian teachers and volunteers. Bible and chapel times are a portion of each students' experience. Courses in literacy and a full high school program are available. Some graduates have gone on to further education, while others have entered the world of employment. As in all UGM programs, our main purpose is to present the students with the opportunity to learn about Jesus, and believe in Him.
