Proclaim the Gospel

BY FRANK ULRICH, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

“And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation” (Mark 16:15).

At Union Gospel Mission, our mission statement is to provide Christ-centered programs for the addicted and the poor men, women and children in Manitoba. Throughout our seven ministries in the four buildings we very intentionally proclaim the gospel message to all those that we are privileged to serve.

In the over 15 years that I have been involved in serving those struggling with poverty and addiction, I have unfortunately noticed a very disturbing trend in the effects of drug use. It is really painful for me to walk or drive around the area of Higgins and Princess and see people that God created completely bent over as a result of recently using some very harsh drugs. In 2025, the Province of Manitoba reports that there were 388 suspected substance related deaths, which is on average over one person dying every single day, related to using drugs. To me, that creates an urgency to proclaim the gospel every day in each of the seven ministries and pray daily that the Holy Spirit would call people to Him. Continued...

(‘Proclaim the Gospel’ continued) Thank you for the part that you play in proclaiming the gospel to the people that we serve who desperately need to hear the wonderful news of the gospel and how, through a relationship with Jesus, people can live free from addiction here on earth and, more importantly, can spend eternity with our Heavenly Father.

Kingdom Goals

BY GILBERT PLANTE, FAMILY MINISTRIES MANAGER, FAMILY LIFE CENTRE

The 2025-26 school year is complete. Once again, there have been many front line battles fought this year; students struggling with their academics, students challenged by the Word of God. It is difficult at times for teenagers in today’s society to be focused on academics while also walking the walk of our Christian faith. Although we are in this world, we know that we don’t belong here, we are sojourners passing through. I have been challenged over the years with many tough questions regarding Christian life principles. Some questions are very philosophical, deep honest questions. I try my best not to simply give my opinion, but to go to the 66 Books that make up the Holy Scriptures. God’s Word is the final court of appeal on all matters!

I mention this because of the five grade 12 graduates this year. I have known four of the five since kindergarten. All five graduates have a personal relationship with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and that hasn’t always been the case. Over the years, as these students were growing in their faith, I would receive questions during phone calls or evening visits that were difficult to answer if it were not for the Bible. I’m not sure what the future holds for our Graduates, however, we know our Lord has Kingdom goals set out for them. Matthew 7:14 reads, “Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.”

Through the Christian School Program students are taught about the narrow path of life, and how to stay on it. Over twelve years of faith based schooling these students went from being lost to being saved. These students already have an advantage over the secular graduating students, because they have all the resources of heaven at their fingertips. As the Lord leads please pray for Alycia, Grace, Avery, Chloe, and Tabitha as they enter a new season of life! To God be all the glory!!

“Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.”

Matthew 7:13-14 (NKJV)

Not Growing Weary

BY ANGELA WATTS, WOMEN’S MINISTRY LEADER, FAMILY LIFE CENTRE

“Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches... And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.”

– Galatians 6:6,9

I am continually encouraged by the stories of women who come to know Christ through UGM’s ministries. I often see how the ministries at the Family Life Centre connect and build upon one another across generations.

Many women who come through our doors share memories of attending camp as children, where they first heard the gospel. For some, attending camp was only possible because of God’s provision through UGM’s Camp Sponsorship Program. Others tell me they participated in our Kids Club programs as children and were introduced to the hope of Christ there.

Now, as adults, these same women are seeking to deepen their faith and grow in their understanding of Scripture, building on the seeds that were (‘Not Growing Weary’ continued) planted in their hearts years ago. I also meet mothers and grandmothers who have faithfully prayed for their children and grandchildren to come to know Jesus and experience the same hope, peace, and transformation that they have found in Him.

Before stepping into my current role as Women’s Ministry Leader, I had the opportunity to serve in both the Kids Club and Camp Sponsorship ministries. In those roles, I witnessed the beginning of seeds being planted in the hearts of children. Today, I have the privilege of walking alongside women whose faith has grown deep and steadfast because of those seeds planted years ago. It is a beautiful reminder that God is always at work, often in ways we cannot immediately see.

May this be an encouragement to all of us to remain faithful in every opportunity God gives us to serve. Whether through sharing the gospel with a child, investing in a relationship, offering a word of encouragement, or faithfully praying for a loved one, God can use every act of obedience for His glory. We may not always see the fruit right away, but God is faithful to accomplish His purposes in His perfect timing.

What a joy it is to witness lives being transformed by Christ and to see the seeds planted years ago continue to bear fruit for His kingdom today. To God be the glory!

A Taste of Camp Ministry

I recently received a text message from a new friend I met in Grand Rapids, Michigan. On July 9th, he writes “Was in prayer this morning for our own camp*. We currently have 300+ kids signed up, and the way things have gone in past years, we will probably be at 350. Your (UGM) ministry came to mind and was praying for you this morning and for the hundreds of thousands of students who will hear the message of Jesus this summer throughout North America.” Meanwhile, UGM’s Camp Ministry is active and likely to reach 1200 or more children taking part in a week-long stay, full of Bible, good food, and wonderful activities. Please pray for camp and cabin leaders. Pray for safety, for journeying mercies and for life changing eternal decisions of embracing salvation. Praise the Lord for the impact of camp in a child’s life which lives with them throughout their lives. Many of those who we meet and serve have been dealing with some or all of the outfall of emotional, physical, or spiritual abuse. Addiction and life on the streets too often followed. Encouragingly, the numbers of God’s creation who say “I recall a Christian song, or a verse, or the need for a Bible. I recall a love I never knew. There was something different about camp,” clearly illustrate the value of camp. Bible camp sows Gospel seeds!

In 2025, I recall how a reluctant young man was boarded on to a bus bound for camp, with a mixture of fear, apprehension, and resentment. He lived in a crack house with his mom and was initially wary of his surroundings. He was not talkative and wanted to be left alone. A week went by. He made friends. He heard about Jesus. He felt safe and loved. When he alighted from the bus, he was smiling and talkative. Full of stories of a great time. Then he espied his mom. She was under the influence of alcohol. In a flash his smile was gone and his pre-camp demeanor returned. Such is the life

(A Taste of Camp Ministry' continued) of many kids the church family helps us to send to camp. We pray for this young man and the dozens like him. Please pray that the joy in the hearts of these precious children does not disappear so quickly on their return 'home.' Pray that joy takes deep roots.

Santa Rosa, California*
In previous years one incredible benefactor paid for 1200+ children. His challenge and heart was for an ever growing number. In honour of his (anonymous) memory and the vision the Lord placed on his heart, we maintain a faith and ardour that says, "The Lord will provide for whatever number of children we register and send to camp." Our enthusiasm for this ministry has not diminished and we will share with you, dear reader, how the season went in our next edition of Voices!*

But the Church Was Earnestly Praying to God

BY JO-ANNE SCOTT, BUSINESS CARE MANAGER

Brothers and sisters in Christ, in the last Voices I wrote a story about Judy, a young woman being ravished by the evils of drug addiction. I’ve not seen her since but I continue to pray for her. The Lord gave me Psalm 43 to pray and I ask you to join me as I pray for Judy and the many, before they become a number in the growing statistics of death, to be released from this bondage and arrive at a place of faith. Acts 12:5b – “but the church was earnestly praying to God for him.”

	Psalm 43, NKJV	Prayer of intercession
VERSE 1	Vindicate me, O God, And plead my cause against an ungodly nation; Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!	Father God, these precious souls that you created are victims of greed, selfishness, sexual immorality and a worldly view on how to help. Their defense is too difficult for mere man to understand but we worship a mighty God! We ask You to deliver them from deceitful and unjust men and from our ungodly nation.
VERSE 2	For You are the God of my strength; Why do You cast me off? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?	You said in Matthew 11:24, “whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.” Father we believe that You have the power to free these precious souls from the snares of the enemy.
VERSE 3	Oh, send out Your light and Your truth! Let them lead me; Let them bring me to Your holy hill And to Your tabernacle.	Mobilize Your church! Grant us the desire to pray and intercede for these vulnerable people. Show us how to be Your hands and feet to this stricken and cast off people. We ask for many to come to salvation.
VERSE 4	Then I will go to the altar of God, To God my exceeding joy; And on the harp I will praise You, O God, my God.	Father God, show us how to share Your Gospel with its love, hope and healing. Open their ears Lord to hear, and their hearts to receive and believe that they may come to a place of faith and healing and give You the glory.
VERSE 5	Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquiet- ed within me? Hope in God; For I shall yet praise Him, The help of my counte- nance and my God.	Father, the enemy’s casualties through addiction is growing, recently a call to declare it a pandemic in Winnipeg. We know that prayer, in the name of Je- sus, is a mighty weapon! Romans 12:21 says, “Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.” May Your army, the Body of Christ, unite in prayer to see Your Kingdom come to our cities and country.

The Lord Directs Her Steps

BY CHRISTINE TALLAKSEN-REMPEL,
RECOVERY COUNSELLOR, CHARIS CENTRE

I have been serving as a Recovery Counsellor at the Charis Centre for just over two years. When the Lord first called me into a career change and led me toward becoming a counsellor, my heart was for women's ministry. I was willing to go back to school, but I told the Lord that I did not want to work in addiction recovery or deliverance ministry. As Proverbs 16:9 reminds us, "A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps."

During my studies, I completed a field assignment with an addictions recovery group. It was there that I clearly heard the Lord's calling into this work. I stopped resisting His leading and surrendered, saying, "Lord, lead me where You want me to go." In His faithfulness, He opened the door and led me to the Charis Centre.

Over the past two years, I have had the privilege of walking alongside many women who have come to the centre carrying deep wounds from trauma, addiction, broken relationships, and hopelessness. Time and again, I have witnessed the truth that Jesus still binds up the brokenhearted, proclaims freedom for the captives, and brings beauty from ashes.

While some women leave before experiencing the deeper healing the Lord desires for them, I truly believe that every woman who walks through our doors encounters the presence, love, and truth of Jesus. Seeds are planted, hearts are touched, and God's Word never returns void.

I have witnessed countless lives transformed through the love of God. When His love is truly received, women begin to experience healing mentally, emotionally, spiritually, and often physically. Recovery counselling and the work of addressing trauma and addiction is not easy. There is often a breaking that takes place, but it is not a breaking unto destruction—it is a breaking unto freedom. The Lord gently dismantles the lies, strongholds, and false identities that have kept His daughters in bondage and begins restoring them to the truth of who they are in Christ.

As women surrender their old lives and receive their God-given identity, healing begins to flourish. We see shame replaced with dignity, fear replaced with faith, and hopelessness replaced with purpose. What the enemy intended for harm, God faithfully redeems for good.

Not every woman remains in treatment long enough to fully walk out her healing and freedom from addiction. Yet I am encouraged knowing that they have encountered the One who promises, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." The God who begins a good work is faithful to carry it on to completion. Even when we do not see the full outcome, we trust that He continues pursuing them with His love and grace.

It has been both humbling and inspiring to walk alongside these women as they grow in their relationship with the Lord and progress in healing and recovery. I have had the joy of seeing several women graduate from the HEART Program and witness firsthand how the transforming love of Christ restores families, rebuilds relationships, and renews lives.

One recent graduate often asked me for the "magic word" that could change everything. I would smile and tell her that the Word had already come as a man who made a way for us all—His name is Jesus. In May, she was baptized and publicly declared Jesus as her Lord and Savior. She has since graduated from the HEART Program and has begun training for a trade.

Her story is a beautiful testimony of redemption. The Lord lifted her from a life marked by trauma, addiction, and homelessness and revealed the truth of who she is as His beloved daughter. Surrounded by a community of love, prayer, and support, she chose to remain, trust the process, and pursue healing. Her recovery journey will continue throughout her life, but she now knows the One who holds her future. The same Jesus who rescued her will continue to sustain, strengthen, and guide her every step of the way.

(The Lord Directs Her Steps' continued) Thank you to everyone who faithfully supports this ministry through your prayers, encouragement, and financial generosity. Your partnership makes it possible for women to encounter the life-changing love of Christ and experience hope, healing, and restoration. Together, we are the hands and feet of Jesus, serving those He brings through our doors and witnessing His transforming power at work in their lives.

To God be the glory for every life changed, every chain broken, and every heart restored.

From Loss to Restoration

BY RUTH NDUNG'U, RSW MANAGER,
CHARIS CENTRE

Lori, one of our interns here at the Charis Centre, shared a meaningful testimony of restoration and faithfulness.

Due to her past struggles with addiction, Lori lost possession of her father's ashes. The urn had been left behind at a previous residence and, despite efforts to recover it, remained missing. This loss caused her significant emotional pain, and over time, she came to accept that it was gone permanently. She also carried a deep sense of guilt and shame related to the situation.

During a class titled Grief and Loss, where residents are encouraged to process and grieve the loss of loved ones, Lori engaged fully in the process. As part of the program, she held a small memorial service in honor of her father.

Around the same period, new occupants moved into Lori's former residence. While clearing the property, they discovered the urn in a shed. Rather than discarding it, the homeowner made intentional efforts to locate its rightful owner, contacting churches and funeral homes without success. As a final attempt, he posted information about the urn on Facebook.

The post was seen by a long time friend of Lori's, who contacted Lori's mother. Lori was then informed, and her friend connected directly with the individual who had found the urn. Arrangements were made for its return.

After six years of believing her father's ashes were permanently lost, Lori was unexpectedly reunited with the urn. This experience marked a significant moment in her journey, occurring at a time when she had begun to process her grief and release feelings of guilt and shame. It stands as a powerful example of restoration and timely intervention.

Congratulations Adult Ed Graduates!

BY GERALD DAHL, PRINCIPAL, FAITH (ADULT) LEARNING CENTRE

Last year (2025) God blessed Faith (Adult) Learning Centre with one grade 12 graduate. And this last June 2026, two proud graduates received their Mature Student Diplomas! Next year, Lord willing, we hope for three or more!!! But it's not about numbers, it's about students learning that knowledge is a gift from God and that God cares about their learning and that as they journey along as students, that Jesus is there to guide and support them in ways that are ever so apparent. I truly believe that the many prayers that were requested in this newsletter and in emails and over the radio were answered for the two most recent graduates.

Thank you, Jesus for caring, and please bless Jeremy and Felicia to grow mightily by your grace in the future. Please pray for staff and students to be refreshed over the summer and for everyone to reengage more energetically than ever when school resumes. Thank you for reading and praying and trusting/hoping and supporting the goal we have to offer Christ-centred learning. A final and particular word of thanks to Street Ministry Manager Ed Buller for his truly fitting and hugely meaningful graduation address and also to the two Judy's and one other servant who generously donated time and foodstuffs for our year-end celebration.

A Bright New Life

BY ADAM KOWALCHUK, STUDENT, FAITH (ADULT) LEARNING CENTRE & INTERN, UGM MEN'S RECOVERY PROGRAM

Faith Learning Centre has changed my plans in life to be more productive, and God is guiding my path in this way. I have not been in school for 6 years, so when I started my education again at Faith Learning Centre, it was a very smooth new beginning. Quite honestly, I had no plans to look forward to in my life before this. Now I have gained the opportunity to acquire my grade 12 diploma as well as to aim for post-secondary education once I finish what I started. I do not think any of this has been or will be possible if I had not come across kind hearted teachers who patiently guide me. I know God brought me here; however, now is the time to do my part of learning to see my plans happen.

God has changed my life from being homeless, and not having a straight path to follow. I took several programs to find my way this far at Faith Learning Centre. All I learned along the way prepared me to become disciplined and stable to keep a solid routine. God has provided me with a changed life from everything I wanted to run away from. I needed to surrender to God and let Him lead the way. I also went to a different Adult Learning Centre 6 years ago that it prepared me to do even better at Faith Learning Centre today. The way I felt was that something is missing in my learning routine. I believe God should be the center of every Learning Centre. Now that I am at Faith Learning Centre, my life will never be the same. My teachers help me with excellence and I wake up every morning very motivated with a sense of purpose. Every time I walk into class, we start with devotions

(‘A Bright New Life’ continued) from the Bible, including prayer for every student. Teachers lead by example in the best way, so I am always growing more maturely in a variety of ways. This positive atmosphere promotes great mental health, spiritual growth that I thrive off, and also my needs are met physically if I need a snack to motivate me to keep working hard in the classroom. Keeping my attendance as close to perfect as possible is one of my goals, so that I fully gain the knowledge on how to apply what I learn such as punctuation and sentence structure to form my paragraphs and to create an essay. I enjoy reading more to expand my brain and to think more clearly. In math, I can now go to the store and find the best price on every product, so I can budget and save money. I also learned about angles to build in construction and find how much gas money I will need to travel a long distance. All of these skills will keep molding and renewing my mind to prepare me to reach my goals such as being consistent and having a positive attitude to show my determination for success. I keep in the back of my mind that going to college is possible more than ever, or finding a job will be hopefully much easier.

As a result, I am very content with my learning experience at Faith Learning Centre. I am greatly blessed to have this opportunity here. I want to add a Bible verse, Hebrews 11:6 (NLT): “And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to Him must believe that God exists and that He rewards those who sincerely seek Him.” I want to add emphasis on how God rewards us when we include Him in our life. As long as I keep God number one, with faith, I will be successful in all my ways. I will take this time to learn to my advantage, so my future path remains crystal clear. I have amazing support that ensures me of my diploma completion. To stay motivated is one of the main elements to use to reach my full potential at Faith Learning Centre.

Learning Along the Way

BY GERALDINE LANGFORD, STUDENT,
FAITH (ADULT) LEARNING CENTRE

Being an adult learner at my age has been quite a journey as I’ve had days of enthusiasm, frustration, and the solemn sense of awe that I am where I should be. The adult learning centre I attend, Faith Learning Centre, has had a significant impact on my life by having the staff there support me through encouragement and feedback. They helped me tremendously as I began to believe in myself. There was a week that a major shift took place where I was able to refocus on continuing school to complete my studies.

When I first began writing, fear set in as I thought about being vulnerable. If people read what I shared on paper, it seemed as though I was giving a part of myself away. That scared me, but I realized I’m comfortable enough with myself to go ahead and write. My written work ended up on the bulletin board last year, looking at the little sign with my name there and “Best Writer of the Year” gave me the boost I needed this year. Finding myself exasperated with grammatical rules brought me to literal tears and it took many a prayer to inch toward understanding it. Not only was it hard emotionally, but my mental state was also challenged. To push myself further meant learning new ways of coping. I had to change “the reels on repeat” in my mind that kept saying “It’s too much, I don’t (‘Learning Along the Way’ continued) get it.” I looked at my teacher with inspiration and asked, “How did you remember all these?” They say that to be able to learn something, you have to be able to teach it. I was impressed because English is her second language and English is a hard language to learn. That moment stuck with me. It is said, “There is a time for everything.” For me going to school was a time to tear down old beliefs I long held which kept me from understanding some things like grammar. It seemed as if all the terms, definitions, rules, and complexities of grammar were rolling around like balls in a bingo machine. Then I realized that I can take them out one by one and they don’t have to stay forever jumbling around. I never used to be able to read in my head before. The noise has quieted down.

In math, I found out I had geometric brain. I picked up on trigonometry easier than I expected. For years, I had heard about this math concept; and it had become a goal of mine to learn. My math teacher had props for geometric shapes that helped me better visualize 3-D nets. Math class helped me realize I may not become the best accountant because I sometimes mix up numbers, but I can help someone figure out how much flooring one would need for a renovation. I never used to be any good at word problems before I started at the adult learning centre, but now I can understand them.

I’m glad I am able to attend my school of choice. They’ve been patient with me, prayed for me, and understood that I want to be there even though life outside school can get busy or overwhelming at times. They helped me see myself as successful and able. I quit school at 18 and returned 35 years later. It is my dream to graduate by this time next year.

What I like most of all is my school is faith-based which is evident by the scripture on the walls. Every day I walk in and read, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge...” (Proverbs 9:10). The weekly chapel meetings, the daily devotions, and prayer for one another has helped me grow spiritually, and kept me growing over the past few months.

There has been a new course added this year which is Physical Education. I left school 35 years ago, left Phys. Ed while I was pregnant with my daughter. I remember not being able to do jackknife in swimming. This year, I go to the pool, and so far my best swim is 700 meters. The swimming lessons back then came back to me so I do front crawl, back stroke, breast stroke, side stroke, and 2 more. Seven different ways to swim back and forth. I do stretching, calisthenics, weight training, and so have been taking better care of myself. Physical education is one of my favorite things to learn about to be able to look after my body. Trying out different activities in gym class has been a lot of fun.

In conclusion, my school has helped me grow. After years of working in daycare settings and encouraging growth and development in children, I am able to take heed to my own words, “You can do it!” It wasn’t too long ago while I was working with a school-ager that my words of encouragement to them came with a word from the Lord, “Why can’t you believe it for yourself?” For so long I didn’t think I could ever finish school and graduate, but through the past little while I have begun to believe in the hope that one day, my graduation day will come as I let go of old beliefs that I am not smart enough or am unable to “get it.”

Precious in His Sight

To put an image bearer of Jesus in the same sentence as garbage is not a sentence I want to be writing. However, early this morning, we discovered a petite lady completely “housed” in a black household garbage bag, located tight to the window and wall of our front door on Princess Street. We regularly see a person shrouded in a sheet or blanket, even covered in garbage bags all around our building. But this was a first for me. As we investigated, there was movement inside the bag and a small hole for air was revealed. “Anne” had nothing on her feet and her only possessions were the flimsy clothes on her back. We tended to her with a blanket, clothing, socks, and footwear. We encouraged her to consider applying to join our Women’s Addiction Recovery program, the Charis Centre. “Anne” told us she was 34 years of age, yet our guess from appearance was close to 50. Years on the streets of Winnipeg, and/or years of drug and opioid addiction have a habit of prematurely stealing time. But we know and believe that Jesus can restore, rebuild, heal, transform, and tenderly respond to just a touch from “Anne”, were she to reach out to Him. Please pray with us, that “Anne” will know her Saviour’s grace and mercy. Please pray that “Anne” will know she has been fearfully and wonderfully made and that her value is of infinite worth.

Nobody but Jesus Radiothon

We were so encouraged during our Nobody but Jesus Radiothon on CHVN on June 17 & 18. Thank you to all who called in for prayer, to all who listened in, to all who donated, and to all who prayed for the Mission. It was a powerful and beautiful time of glorifying Jesus and sharing about the power He has to transform us. Stay tuned to CHVN for more stories throughout the year of God at work at UGM and His 7 ministries!
